

TextView will be used to present various components of the screens. ListView can be used for the collection of themes for games. This could also be done with RecyclerView.

Buttons created via ImageView will allow user to access other screens from home screen.

The slide will allow user to set the time for duration of game.

The search box will allow user to enter terms for finding cards to create themed decks.

TextView can be used for this screen.